

Based in Minneapolis, MN, IZiel Healthcare Inc. seeks multiple Project Management Specialist/Principal Technical Managers, to manage and coordinate projects within scope, budget, and timeline; work on tasks and set deadlines, assign responsibilities, and monitor progress to ensure smooth execution; prepare and present detail status reports, to facilitate and inform decision-making; manage assembly methods, tools, and engineering documentation with a focus on quality systems and regulatory compliance; create and review validation plans, reports, and essential documents, to include IQ, OQ, PQ, URS, FAT, and SAT, and ensure all processes meet industry standards; leverage six sigma, lean manufacture principles, and statistical analysis for process validation, continuous improvement, and effective project delivery; environmental Skills: Minitab, Auto CAD, Visual Studio. Minimum education: Master's degree in Biomedical / Business admin / engineering (any), C.I.S., or equivalent. Minimum experience: 1 year of experience as Project Analyst, Principal Engineer, Project Co-ordinator, or related. Various worksites throughout the U.S. – relocation is contingent on the client's needs. Frequency of relocation is unknown, and depends on the client's requirements. There is no national or international travel involved. Wage offered: $104,000. Standard benefits. Send resume and cover letter to usacareers@izielhealthcare.com .